

Davies, Davison, Dawson & Day Family Stories

-Blood on the Cross

Emily Davison and the Suffragette Movement.
(John A. Davidson 1994)

-Love will find a way

Story about Christian Davies who enlisted in the army as a man to try and find her husband who had been tricked into joining. She fought at the Battle of Blenheim in 1704. (John A. Davidson 1994)

-The Speechless Woman

Charles Dawson and the Piltdown Hoax.
(John A. Davidson 1995)

-Alexander Davison – ‘The Friend of Nelson’

(Ian Davidson 2003)

-Davisons of Lanton, Akeld & Swarland in Northumberland

(Flora Davidson 2003)

-‘An Ignorant Fellow’

More information about the family tree of Alexander Davison mentioned above.
(Flora Davidson 2003)

-Davison, Newman & Company: The Firm that supplied the tea for at Boston Tea Party.
Monkhouse Davison, 1713-1793 and his descendents.
(Clifford Davison 2007)

-Charles Davison, 1848-1940:
Eminent Amateur Seismologist & Teacher
(Bob Davidson 2008)

-Francis Day: Founder of Madras
(Ian Davidson 2007)

John Dawson, one of the founder members of the Clan Davidson Association, has enjoyed a long career as a small animal veterinary surgeon. He has written and contributed much to The Pheon.

-Experiences of a Young Vet
A Practice Builder
An Unusual Christmas Present
(1998)

-Experiences of a Young Vet
Untwisting Life's Mysteries
(1999)

-Born Lucky?
(2002)

-Nine Lives:
Cappuccino, The getting-to-know-you game
(2003)

-Nine Lives: The Ayes have it
(2004)

-Look! Listen! And Think!

An address given to the assembled congregation of People and their Animals at St John in the Wilderness Church, Exmouth on Sunday 10th October, 1999.
(2004)

