

Vol 108. 286 Sir William Henry Davison, Rt Hon Baron Broughshane, Kensington 1945

Gules, a stag trippant and in chief a celestial crown and a fleur-de-lis Or

Crest: Upon a billet fesswise a stag's head between two wings Or

Supporters: On either side a stag Or, gorged with a chain Gules and a pendant there from a torteau, the dexter charged with a portcullis and the sinister with a grenade fired Or

Motto: Virtus In Action Consistit.

Painting by D.E.Ivall